PRELUDE

PRAYER OF SAINT GREGORY

(Music: Alan Hovhanness)

HYMN 155 VU

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TODAY

(EASTER HYMN) (Words / Music: Lyra Davidica)

Jesus Christ is risen today, hallelujah!
our triumphant holy day, hallelujah!
who did once, upon the cross, hallelujah!
suffer to redeem our loss. Hallelujah!

Hymns of praise then let us sing hallelujah!
unto Christ, our heavenly King, hallelujah!
who endured the cross and grave, hallelujah!
sinners to redeem and save. Hallelujah!

But the pains which he endured, hallelujah!
our salvation have procured; hallelujah!
now above the sky he's King, hallelujah!
where the angels ever sing. Hallelujah!

Sing we to our God above, hallelujah!
praise eternal as God's love; hallelujah!
praise our God, ye heavenly host, hallelujah!
praise the Son and Holy Ghost. Hallelujah!

EASTER PROCLAMATION

(Read by Jamie McQueen and Shannon McQueen)

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed! Hallelujah!

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP (Read by Sheri Brooks)

At early dawn, when the light was just emerging and the shadows still long and deep, the earth began to sing a tender and persistent hallelujah.

And the resurrection smelled like death and dirt.

Christ, the Power of Love, is risen indeed. Hallelujah.

At early dawn, with the salt of tears still crusting their eyes, the women began to sing a grieving and faithful hallelujah.

And the empty tomb sounded like weeping and questions. Christ, the Wounded One, is risen indeed.

Hallelujah.

At early dawn, when no one could remember the sound of hope or the promise of a new day rising, the world began to sing a fierce and determined hallelujah.

And the rising up tasted like bread and rejoicing.

Christ, the Way of Truth and Life, is risen indeed.

Hallelujah.

At early dawn, as each day brings forth new agonies and injustices, we gather to sing a grateful and liberating hallelujah. And this Easter feels like protest and praise.

Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed.

Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah.

PRAYER OF APPROACH

Holy One, just as they came to the tomb to honour you on that early Easter morning, we gather to praise you this day. May our alleluias resound in adoration and shared joy that you are risen and we share in the promise of new life. May we encounter your glory in this assembled community as we follow you from the empty tomb into the possibilities that await. Amen.

We pray with the words Jesus taught us, saying, “Our Father...Amen.” (960 VU) (A laminated handheld version of The Lord’s Prayer can be found in the hymnbook holder in the pew.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy Love, in every ending, there is a beginning. In the same way, beginnings signal an end. May the promise of new life enable us to end the things that do not serve us, to end the attitudes that do not honour you, and to end the ways in which we are complacent and complicit in the world.

Empower us to leave those things in the tomb and follow your trail. Jesus, you have demonstrated the path of your kingdom, keep us on the road of abundant and transformed life as revived and encouraged participants in your resurrected and glorified body. Grant us grace when the realities of life overwhelm, threaten to consume us, and mire us in the past.

For the newness of life, we pray.

Have mercy on us, Holy One. Amen.

(moment of silence to offer personal thoughts and concerns)

WORDS OF GRACE

Beloved, Jesus is risen. The Holy One is yet alive, and therefore, doing a new thing. Receive the grace of God that requires no resurrection to rise to meet us in our weakness. Embrace the grace of God to move forward boldly in new life. Hold fast to the grace of God to guide you in living the resurrected life.

A NEW CREED, p. 918 VU

STAND AS ABLE

We are not alone,
we live in God's world.

We believe in God:
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus,
the Word made flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others
by the Spirit.

We trust in God,

We are called to be the Church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,
our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death,
God is with us.
We are not alone.
Thanks be to God.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Statement of Purpose

Read by Sheri Brooks

Hear this record of Jesus' radical concern for welcoming children: People were bringing little children to Jesus in order that he might bless them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will not enter it." And Jesus took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Presentation

by Sheri Brooks

On behalf of the congregation of St. John's United Church, I present the following persons for initiation into the body of Christ through baptism:

Merveille, daughter of Divine Vuguziga and Gad Byiringiro

Profession of Faith and Promises

Divine and Gad, do you believe in one God:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?

We do.

Desiring the freedom of new life, do you seek to be people of justice, and to live in love as a family?

We do.

Will you follow the way of Jesus Christ?

We will.

Will you join with the people of St. John's United Church to share in the life, work, and ministry of Jesus Christ?

We will.

Congregational Commitment (please stand as you are able)

Let us pledge to these persons our support and care.

As St. John's United Church, a baptized and baptizing people, we commit ourselves to support and uphold you within the community of faith.

May God grant us all the grace to live out our baptism.

Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Pouring of Water

God be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give our thanks to God.

It is good to give God thanks and praise.

Gracious and Holy God, we bless you for the gift of life, and, within it, the gift of water. Over its unshaped promise, your Spirit hovered at creation.

Here in Moncton, we are a Maritime people, where flows the Petitcodiac River each day. Around the world, people are without clean water in this very moment. We recognize the sacrament of baptism as a time of lifting up and pouring out; so in this moment we lift up those without, and we pour out our prayers for our world, and for our part in the cause of, and solution for, its problems.

By water, comes the growth of the earth.

Through water, you led the children of Israel to freedom.

In the waters of the Jordan your child Jesus was baptized.

Pour out, O God, your Holy Spirit upon us, and upon this water, that this font may become a source of new life, a source of grace, and a source of blessing.

We claim the joy of water and the way it sustains and nourishes us.

Let it flow and pour for all people, that all may know each day, the gift of life in water.

These stories remind us that water is a blessing and the source and strength of life.

Without it, humanity and all that is created could not survive.

Our stories also remind us that God's way is the way of compassion and love.

God's love, like a shower of rain in drought, awakens the sleeping seed within the soul and lures it to blossom.

(The water is poured into the font)

So let's give thanks for this love that reaches out to us, in what we say and do in love for this child, whom we are welcoming into our midst.

Merveille Byiringiro, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Blessing

May God bless you, and keep you, and may God's face shine upon you all the days of your life.

UCW Presentation

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Statement of Purpose

Read by Valerie Roy

The church is a community of people with varied gifts, united in a common faith. We gather to celebrate God's presence, to discern God's truth, and to follow the teachings of Jesus. Within our faith, the denomination to which we belong is The United Church of Canada. Membership is something that formalizes one's relationship with a church; however, it is a formality that recognizes the reality that someone already contributes to the life of their church community through leadership, worship, and simply belonging. We are now to welcome into this congregation those who are already members of the church of Jesus Christ.

Presentation

Read by Valerie Roy

On behalf of St. John's United church, I present the following persons whom we recognize as a part of our community of faith, and who wish to become members of The United Church of Canada:

Allie Billard – Profession of Faith

Eli Billard – Profession of Faith

Alexandra Duchemin – transfer from Upper Sackville United Church

Rheal Leger – Profession of Faith
Erna Ricciuto– transfer from Upper Sackville United Church
Heather Thurber – transfer from Visions United Church
William (Bill) Thurber – transfer from Visions United Church

Jill, Allie, Eli, Alexandra, Dominic, Rheal, Erna, Heather and Bill, will you continue to join with us as we celebrate God’s presence, live with respect in creation, love and serve others, seek justice and resist evil? Will you seek the comfort of this community of faith, and learn how it is we see God?

Will you challenge us to grow and to become more aware of the ways in which God works in our world?

We will.

Welcome

In the name of Jesus Christ, on behalf of St. John’s United Church, I welcome you to the privileges and responsibilities of membership in this congregation. We give thanks to God that you have chosen to share your gifts with us. Amen.

ANTHEM

IN CHRIST ALONE

Piano, Allie Billard; Trumpet, Matthew Mulvihill

(Words / Music: Keith Getty, Stuart Townend / Arr.: Mark Hayes)

No guilt in life
No fear in death
This is the power of Christ in me.
From life’s first cry, to final death
Jesus commands my destiny
No power of hell, no scheme of man
Can ever pluck me from his hand
Till he returns or calls me home
Here in the power of Christ I stand
Here in the power of Christ I stand

OFFERING

YOUR WORK, O GOD, NEEDS MANY HANDS

(KILMARNOCK) (Words: Calvin Weiss Laufer / Music: Neil Dougall)

Your work, O God, needs many hands to help you everywhere, and some there are who cannot serve unless our gifts we share. Because we love you and your work, our offering now we make: be pleased to use it as your own, we ask for Jesus' sake.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND DEDICATION

O God of the empty tomb and the quiet voice, we have walked in a world full of grief and despair. Touch our souls and lighten our spirits. Come, in power and mystery; draw us in to meet the risen Jesus. Bless what we have offered here, and help us find our voices to share the astonishing news. In the name of the Risen One, Amen.

Jesus has died and is risen. R

We have been crucified with Christ,
now we shall live for ever. R

Come let us praise the living God, joyfully sing to our Saviour. R

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Read by Marcia Hicks

Acts 10:34–43 Peter's account of Jesus' death and resurrection.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HYMN 181 VU MIDNIGHT SHARPNESS, STARFIELDS, FADING

(TASHME) (Words: Neil Lemke / Music: David Kai)

Midnight sharpness, starfields, fading, creeping hues engulf the east, strips of grave-cloth cloud reflecting faintest lines in crimson grey:

Herald Dawn's first heartbeat glowing,
blood-red streaks of fire flow
'cross the fields of furrowed labour, signs of living, promise, hope.

Cold of winter, dark of evening,
cannot crush the light-seed sown,
flames on frozen, dew-wrapped grasses,
sparkling tears of Joy Unknown:

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Shout O skies! Rejoice O fields!
Hallelujah! Jesus! Saviour! Let the Bells of Morning peal!

SERMON

COMMUNION HYMN 462 VU (LAYING DOWN) (Words / Music: John L. Bell)
BEFORE I TAKE THE BODY OF MY LORD

Before I take the body of my Lord,
before I share his life in bread and wine,
I recognize the sorry things within: these I lay down.

The words of hope I often failed to give,
the prayers of kindness buried by my pride,
the signs of care I argued out of sight: these I lay down.

The narrowness of vision and of mind,
the need for other folk to serve my will,
and every word and silence meant to hurt: these I lay down.

Of those around in whom I meet my Lord,
I ask their pardon and I grant them mine that every contradiction to Christ's peace might be laid down.

Lord Jesus Christ, companion at this feast,
I empty now my heart and stretch my hands, and ask to meet you here in bread and wine which you lay down.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

(Written by John van de Laar © 2009 Sacredise)

We Gather and We Celebrate

What are we to make of this day?
When graves are opened...
When the dead awaken...
When life refuses to be contained...

Then nothing is impossible!

Hope is never extinguished and love is never conquered.

We celebrate you today, Jesus,
Because you have made it clear that death does not have the last word;
Because you have filled us again with hope and faith;
Because you have given us a vision of new possibilities, new realities, and new ways of being

Open our minds to believe what we cannot explain;

Open our hearts to hope for what we cannot see;

Open our lives to live and to love in the midst of death and despair;

Let resurrection happen again in us today. Amen

We Acknowledge Our Need

God, resurrection is not what we expect in our world.
On the face of things, life seems to be under threat...
our earth is grieving,
our families are fracturing,
our nations are at war,
and the light of our hope is growing dim.

We need the stone to be rolled away again.

Forgive us and all who have failed to honour and preserve life in all its diversity and glory Forgive us and all who have allowed relationships to become less important than riches or recognition

Forgive us and all who continue to exalt our needs and desires over those of others, and who are prepared to kill to prove it.
Forgive us and all who have grown blind to all the signs of resurrection that beckon us still.

We need the stone to be rolled away again.

We need life to break out within us again.

We need love to consume us again.

Resurrect us today, O Lord, and make us agents of your life wherever dying and grief hold sway.

For Jesus sake. Amen.

We Feast at the Lord's Table

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed!

Let's celebrate this irrepressible life;
let's open our hearts to the joy and wonder of infinite possibility,
of unquenched hope,
of eternal resurrection.

We celebrate, we raise our voices and our hearts in worship and thanksgiving to the God who lives.

Resurrection happened because Christ was first prepared to die. Defying death, he refused to release his hold on life and love. So now, as he encouraged us, we choose to remember so that we too can truly live.

At supper on the night before he died

Jesus took bread and blessed it.

Then he broke it and gave it to his disciples saying:

This is my body, broken so that you may know life.

Eat it and remember me.

After the meal Jesus took wine and blessed it.

Then he gave it to his disciples saying:

This is my blood, shed so that you may know life.

Drink it and remember me.

So, now, Lord of Life, we share in this meal, we celebrate together, and we remember you.

And we will continue to do this until resurrection has flooded the whole creation.

Amen.

May this bread and this wine become for us in this moment
your life-giving body and blood,
And may we who share this meal, be joined with you,
and with one another,
as one body united in resurrection life,
and sharing with all of creation in your eternal salvation.

Amen.

As we break this bread, we receive Christ's life
In all our diversity, in all our individuality, as we share this one loaf
we are one.

Communion is received. (Communion Servers: Karen & Terry Teed)

The Distribution

All who seek God and a deeper life in Christ are welcome to receive Holy Communion. If you would rather receive communion in the form of a traditional cup and shared plate of bread, please move towards the centre aisle to receive the bread and cup. When you receive communion the appropriate response is saying "Amen."

Gluten-free communion cups are available as you enter the sanctuary. Please make your need known to an usher and they will be happy to help.

We Give Thanks

We thank You, O God, for your life, pulsing in creation
revealed in Jesus
renewed in resurrection
and available to us now.

Thank You for touching us again with your life
through bread and wine;
for joining our lives with yours through Jesus;
and for renewing resurrection
in our hearts through your Holy Spirit.

Filled with life,
we now offer ourselves to be life-bringers in the world.
Touched by resurrection,
we pledge to resist death wherever we find it.
Filled with hope,
we embrace the promise of eternity,
and the call to make it known at every opportunity.

Through us may graves continue to be opened,
and may the dead continue to be awakened
to new life. In Jesus Name. Amen

BENEDICTION

HYMN 173a VU      *THINE IS THE GLORY      (JUDAS MACCABAEUS)
(Words: Edmond Louis Budry / Music: Harmonia Sacra; arr. George Frideric Handel)

Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son:
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave-clothes where the body lay.

*Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son:
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.*

Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb!
Lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord now liveth: death has lost its sting. R

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life;
life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife;
make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above. R

But it is worth the effort, as $3,448.15 was raised. I can always depend on the folks at St. John’s. Brenda McFarlane
