75 Alma Street, Moncton, NB E1C 4Y3

Seeking: Talented Organist and Choir Director

St. John's United Church is seeking a talented organist and choir director, effective August 2017. This is a contract position, renewable annually or until terminated by either party with one month's notice in writing.

About SJUC

St. John's United Church is a church that enriches the spiritual lives of people, children and adults alike, through prayer, music, preaching, education, fun and humour. We see the value in providing a quality music program to enhance the worship experience of our congregation.

We are known for our superb acoustics and our sanctuary has been renovated to make us more worship and performance friendly. For music we have a 3 manual, 33 rank Casavant pipe organ, refurbished in 1959. Earlier this year we purchased a 2017 Yamaha CX3 grand piano. These instruments, joined with our choirs, fill the sanctuary with joyful music.

The Position

The principal responsibilities of the organist and choir director are:

- Playing the organ or piano and directing the choir
- Selecting suitable music for church services
- Conducting weekly choir practices
- Playing at weddings and funerals
- Ensuring sound quality by working with the sound team
- Arranging for regular maintenance of the church organ and pianos within budget
- Purchasing choral and instrumental music within budget allowance

Other duties may be agreed upon with church council and/or Ministry & Personnel

Fees

The fee for professional services will be based on the RCCO table of remuneration, which takes into consideration educational qualifications, years of related experience and hours worked per week. <https://www.rcco.ca/table-of-recommended-salaries>
